Andy Tuck is co-lead of the firm's Insurance Team. He focuses his practice on international arbitration and federal litigation, primarily in the areas of insurance and antitrust. His deep knowledge of actuarial analysis allows him to assist insurers with their most difficult issues in and out of litigation, and his electrical engineering background and patent bar license allows him to represent clients entangled in litigation involving cutting-edge technology, primarily in the telecommunications industry. Andy also has extensive experience handling high-value appeals in state and federal courts. Andy is recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® for Commercial Litigation.

Before working at Alston & Bird, Andy served as a law clerk for the Hon. B. Avant Edenfield of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Georgia and the Hon. Joel F. Dubina of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.
