

Carissa Lavin

Associate

+1 404 881 7381 | carissa.lavin@alston.com

Atlanta | One Atlantic Center, 1201 West Peachtree Street, Suite 4900 | Atlanta, GA 30309-3424

Related Services

Securities Litigation ■ Contingent Risk Insurance

Carissa Lavin is an associate in Alston & Bird’s Securities Litigation Group, where she focuses her practice on internal investigations and complex securities litigation. Before joining the firm, Carissa litigated issues related to breaches of fiduciary duty and environmental causes of action including the Clean Water Act and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act.

While earning her J.D., cum laude, from Georgia State University, Carissa served on the Georgia State Law Review, as the president of the Georgia State OUTLaw program, and as a member of the GSU Public Interest Law Association. In law school, Carissa interned for both District Judge Michael Brown and Magistrate Judge Catherine Salinas of the Northern District of Georgia. She earned her B.A., summa cum laude, in public policy from Georgia State University.

Professional & Community Engagement

- Stonewall Bar Association

Education

- Georgia State University (J.D., 2021)
- Georgia State University (B.A., 2019)

Admitted to Practice

- Georgia