

Daniel Dubin

Senior Associate

+1 213 576 1156 | daniel.dubin@alston.com

Los Angeles | 350 South Grand Avenue, 51st Floor | Los Angeles, CA 90071

Related Services

Tax ■ State & Local Tax ■ Unclaimed Property ■ Tax Controversy ■ Blockchain & Digital Assets

Clients from a variety of industries trust Daniel's ability to distill complex, factual legal issues into clear arguments when facing litigation and multistate audits.

Daniel Dubin is a senior associate who focuses his practice on cutting-edge, nationwide matters in unclaimed property, state and local taxation, and consumer protection. Daniel is a litigator with significant experience representing clients in pre-litigation disputes during unclaimed property and state and local tax audits, as well as high-stakes cases against both public and private entities in state and federal courts. Daniel also advises clients on structuring their unclaimed property, gift card, and loyalty programs to comply with state unclaimed property and consumer protection laws. He has represented dozens of companies in the entertainment, hospitality, financial services, retail, and manufacturing industries in unclaimed property matters.

Daniel also has authored articles and has been quoted in major publications, including Law360, Bloomberg Law, The Hollywood Reporter, and BuzzFeed, about non-fungible tokens (NFTs). He has been awarded NFT.NYC's Most Expert Handling of the Law and NFTs Award in 2022.

Before joining Alston & Bird, Daniel was a cross-practice litigator, covering complex commercial litigation, Unfair Competition Law (UCL), and False Claims Act (FCA) claims, as well as entertainment, intellectual property, and employment law matters. He was also a judicial extern for the Hon. Stephen V. Wilson of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

Representative Experience

- Obtained a motion for summary disposition against the Michigan Department of Treasury on the issue that the statute of limitations barred the Treasurer from requiring the escheat of unclaimed property.
- Obtained a dismissal with prejudice in an unfair competition class action where plaintiff alleged that misleading on-screen ATM prompts caused consumers to make unwanted balance inquiries, thereby generating additional fee assessments.
- Opposed a motion for summary judgment on the grounds that COVID-19 frustrated the purpose of a commercial lease agreement with favorable results for the client.
- Second chair for a breach of contract trial in which the plaintiff alleged he was owed 50 percent of the client's finder's fee for setting up the Floyd Mayweather, Jr. vs. Manny Pacquiao boxing match.

Publications & Presentations

Publications

- “The California Supreme Court Limits Tort Liability of Lenders and Servicers,” The Recorder, March 15, 2022.
- “Why Unclaimed Property Risk Management Is on the Menu in 2022,” Tax Executive, February 1, 2022.
- “‘Pulp Fiction’ NFT Lawsuit Presents New IP Battleground,” Law360, December 20, 2021.

Presentations

- “How to Take Advantage of California's New Voluntary Compliance Program,” webinar, June 27, 2023.
- Miramax v. Tarantino – The Value of NFT IP Rights Are No Pulp Fiction, January 18, 2022.

Professional & Community Engagement

- Animal Legal Defense Fund, volunteer
- Jewish Graduate Student Initiative
- Los Angeles Intellectual Property Law Association – Young Lawyers Committee

Education

- University of California, Los Angeles (J.D., 2016)
- University of California, Los Angeles (B.A., 2012)

Languages

- Russian

Admitted to Practice

- California