Ethan Bond is a senior associate with Alston & Bird’s Litigation & Trial Practice Group. Ethan has represented clients before federal and state trial and appellate courts and in arbitration, with issues spanning public nuisance, ERISA, state consumer-protection laws, fraud, and breach of contract. He has also co-authored numerous appellate briefs, including on issues of first impression and in bet-the-company litigation, in the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, the Delaware Supreme Court, the Missouri Supreme Court, the Ohio Supreme Court, the Oklahoma Supreme Court, and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Ethan was recently recognized in the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch[®] for his expertise in commercial litigation.

Before joining the firm, Ethan earned his J.D., cum laude, from Loyola Law School in Los Angeles, where he served as an editor for the Loyola of Los Angeles Entertainment Law Review and participated on Loyola’s National Moot Court team, winning “Best Brief” in the Southern California region. After graduation, he served as a judicial law clerk for the Hon. Manuel L. Real of the Central District of California.
