ALSTON & BIRD

Jean Richmann

Senior Associate

+1 415 243 1039 | jean.richmann@alston.com
San Francisco | 560 Mission Street, Suite 2100 | San Francisco, CA 94105-0912

Related Services

Litigation ▪ Commercial ▪ Antitrust ▪ Administrative Law

Jean Richmann is a senior associate in Alston & Bird's Litigation & Trial Practice Group. Before joining Alston & Bird, Jean interned for the U.S. Department of Justice Criminal Division, Public Integrity Section and the U.S. Senate.

Jean received her J.D. from Stanford University, where she served as an editor of the Stanford Environmental Law Journal. She was also actively involved with the Immigration Pro Bono program and the Youth Education Law Project. Before law school, Jean earned her B.A., summa cum laude, in political science from the University of Michigan and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Representative Experience

- Representing a major pharmacy benefit manager and a mail-order pharmacy in nationwide litigation related to drug pricing and drug distribution.
- Defending a pharmacy benefit manager against several novel RICO and antitrust claims in multiple jurisdictions.
- Representing a Native Tribe in COVID-19 litigation relating to disbursement of CARES Act Funds.
- Defending a consumer reporting agency against numerous FCRA allegations.
- Counseled a generic pharmaceutical company in a consumer class action alleging antitrust violations based on nondisclosure of patents to the U.S. Pharmacopeial Convention.
- Counseled a major generic drug manufacturer in a DOJ antitrust investigation alleging price fixing and market allocation.
- Defended a pharmaceutical company in an antitrust lawsuit alleging conspiracy to exclude generic competition.
- Secured a nationwide preliminary injunction barring the U.S. Department of Agriculture from implementing a new regulation that would severely curtail SNAP benefits.

Education

- Stanford University (J.D., 2018)
- University of Michigan (B.A., 2014)

Admitted to Practice

- California

- Massachusetts