Kaeley Brown is an associate with the Technology & Privacy Group and Cybersecurity Preparedness & Response Team. Kaeley focuses her practice on data privacy and cybersecurity compliance and enforcement matters. She advises clients on data breach response, as well as various information security transaction-related issues. Kaeley also has experience with all stages of investigations and litigation, including white collar and securities matters.

Before joining Alston & Bird, Kaeley worked as an associate in the Atlanta office of an international law firm. During law school, Kaeley served as an intern in the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Georgia. Kaeley received her J.D., with honors, from Emory University. She received her B.A. in history and political science from the University of Georgia.
