Karl Geercken is a partner in the firm's Litigation & Trial Practice Group. He has more than 30 years of experience representing clients across the U.S. and the world in a broad range of complex, high-stakes commercial litigation and arbitrations. He focuses on the business goals of the client and works with his team to devise a strategy that supports those goals by emphasizing early case assessment as a tool to reduce uncertainty in litigation. Karl has been ranked by Chambers USA for Litigation: General Commercial – New York and noted for being “very reliable” and for “explaining complex issues very simply.” He is also ranked in Chambers Global for Litigation as a Foreign Expert in Germany.

Karl frequently manages parallel U.S. and foreign litigation and has extensive experience in cross-border litigation. He has been called upon to represent foreign governments or their agencies in U.S. courts. As a result, he has developed insight into handling issues common to international dispute resolution, including those relating to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA), the Act of State Doctrine, and obtaining discovery abroad. He is fluent in German and a co-leader of the firm's German Practice Team and a member of the Global Business Strategies Team. (CV auf Deutsch)

Karl also serves as Alston & Bird's General Counsel. He has significant experience advising on professional liability issues and cases.
