Morey Barnes Yost is a member of Alston & Bird's Financial Services & Products Group and the Consumer Financial Services Team. She advises clients on a broad range of federal and state regulatory compliance matters relating to consumer financial services, including the Truth in Lending Act, Flood Disaster Protection Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, and state mortgage lending, servicing, appraisal, and appraisal management company (AMC) statutes.

Representative Experience

- Counseling bank and nondepository clients on compliance with state and federal laws relating to mortgage loan origination and mortgage loan servicing activities, including the Flood Disaster Protection Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, Truth in Lending Act (TILA), Equal Credit Opportunity Act, and Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.
- Advising appraisal management companies (AMCs) and lenders on compliance with federal and state appraisal and valuation laws, including TILA, the Interagency Appraisal and Evaluation Guidelines, state AMC laws, and the federal minimum standards for AMCs under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act.
- Providing regulatory due diligence support to clients in the acquisition of AMCs and other entities providing third-party services to mortgage lenders and servicers.
- Assisting AMCs with obtaining and maintaining state licenses, including regulatory filings for changes of name and changes of ownership.
- Counseling a state-chartered bank on substantive provisions of law relating to unsecured consumer lending.
- Assessing compliance management programs of depository and nondepository entities to identify potential sources of regulatory compliance and consumer risk and to prepare for potential examination by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB).
- Responding to federal and state examinations of clients' mortgage loan origination and servicing activities and to state regulatory investigations involving AMCs.
- Developing and reviewing clients' compliance management programs, including compliance policies and procedures.
- Assisting a mortgage servicer responding to CFPB notices of potential action and request for response (PARR) letters.
