Reagan Drake is an associate with Alston & Bird's Litigation & Trial Practice Group. Reagan focuses his practice on supporting clients with excellent legal research skills and attention to detail. His experience includes antitrust litigation, international arbitration, commercial disputes, constitutional litigation, and government investigations.

Reagan previously served as a student associate at The Exoneration Project, where he drafted post-conviction petitions for wrongfully convicted prisoners in the Illinois Department of Corrections. While earning his J.D. from The University of Chicago Law School, Reagan also gained experience as a student associate advising local startups on various legal issues. He continues to work with The Exoneration Project through his pro bono efforts at Alston & Bird.

He earned his B.A., magna cum laude, from Auburn University.
