

Tyler Blake

Senior Associate

+1 415 243 1062 | tyler.blake@alston.com

San Francisco | 560 Mission Street, Suite 2100 | San Francisco, CA 94105-0912

Related Services

Litigation ■ Commercial ■ White Collar, Government & Internal Investigations ■ Antitrust

Tyler Blake is a senior associate in Alston & Bird's Litigation & Trial Practice Group. Tyler represents clients in a variety of litigation matters including complex business disputes, internal investigations, and government enforcement actions.

Tyler has diversified experience managing a wide range of dispute types, including civil litigation in federal and state court, alternative dispute resolution, whistleblower investigations, government inquiries, subpoena responses, and criminal defense. Tyler has drafted and presented investigation findings to the Department of Justice, Securities and Exchange Commission, and various other federal and state regulatory agencies.

Tyler has also worked extensively on pro bono matters related to criminal justice reform, civil rights litigation, tenants' rights, and immigration and family detention.

Tyler earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from the Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. He graduated as a member of the Order of the Coif and served as chief commentaries editor of the Washington University Law Review. During law school, Tyler also worked as judicial intern to the Hon. Amy Berman Jackson in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

Tyler earned his B.A. from Vassar College with a major in political Science and a minor in economics.

Representative Experience

- Represented a large health insurance company in a first-of-its-kind criminal investigation into alleged wage-fixing.
- Represented a startup medical device company in a government investigation into alleged violations of privacy and consumer protection laws.
- Represented a large life sciences company in a government investigation into price-fixing and market allocation in the generic pharmaceutical industry.
- Obtained a favorable settlement and dismissal of claims for an executive in an arbitration brought by their former employer alleging breaches of fiduciary duty.

Education

- Washington University in St. Louis (J.D., 2017)
- Vassar College (B.A., 2012)

Admitted to Practice

- California
- District of Columbia